Mark 3:20-30 King James Version with restored names (KJV with Restored Names)

DATE OF READING	1) S = SCRIPTURE	FULL SCRIPTURE	(2) O = OBSERVATION
Feb 22 – Day 053		20 And the multitude cometh together (And the crowd formed) again, so that they could not so much as eat bread (to the extent that Yahusha and His disciples could not even eat a meal).	Many people came to until they were not able to eat a meal.
		21 And when his (His) friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold (take custody) on him (Him): for they said, He is beside himself (He is out of His mind).	His friends heard this, they said that Yahusha has gone mad and took a hold of Him.
		22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath (has) Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils (He is driving out the demons). (NOTE: scribes (noun – plural of scribe) = Jewish learned leaders trained to write and teach the Torah (the 1st five books of the Bible, the law of Alahym) (NOTE: Beelzebub (proper noun) = Strong's Concordance: H954. Beelzeboul: Original Word in Hebrew: Βεελζεβούλ, ὁ = Beelzeboul: Beelzebul, a name of Satan. Beelzebub, often referred to as the "Lord of the Flies," is a name derived from a Philistine god worshipped in Ekron, and it later became associated with Satan in Christian theology. The name signifies a high-ranking demon or the prince of demons, representing evil spirits and is mentioned in the New Testament)	However, after seeing the Yahusha casted out the demons, the scribes accused Him of using the power of Satan to do this.
		23 And he (He) called them unto him (Him), and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?	Yahusha began to speak to them in parables (using stories as lessons) to explain to the scribes that what they have said is absurd / not logical.

		24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.	1st example parable: A kingdom will fall apart if all the people in it are not united or not work together as a team.
		25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.	2nd example parable: A family will fall apart if all the family members are not united or not working together as a family.
		26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath (has) an end.	Yahusha explains: Satan will fall apart if he is doing things against himself.
		27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.	3rd example parable: No robber would be able to rob a strong house owner unless the robber first ties up the strong house owner. Only then the robber can begin to steal / take the things.
		28 Verily (Truly) I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme (and all the abusive and blasphemous things they say):	Yahusha explains: The Most High will forgive humans for ALL type of sins, including those sins caused by abusive and blasphemous words:

TOPIC : A Divided Kingdom & The Unforgivable Sin / The Unpardonable Sin

Mark 3:20-30 King James Version with restored names (KJV with Restored Names)

		29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) hath never (never has) forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation (punishment in hell).	Yahusha continues to explain: but the sin that blaspheme against the Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) will never be forgiven and will be punished in the burning hell eternally.
		30 [Yahusha said this] Because they said, He hath (has) an unclean spirit.	Verse 30 here is a conclusion for this entire context (passage). It explains how the scribes blasphemed against the Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) without mentioning Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah). Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) is the Most High Creator Yahuah.
		(2) O = OBSERVATION First of all, we must remember that the Most High Creator Yahuah is extremely loving and merciful. In the entire Scripture, we read He is always quick to forgive those who repent sincerely. Yahuah forgave Mosheh (Moses) after he killed an Egyptian man. Yahuah even forgave David who was an adulterer (David slept with a married woman. Her name was Bathsheba. She became pregnant). Yahuah forgave David after he arranged for the husband of Bathsheba to be killed. We read that the Most High Creator Yahuah forgives all types of blasphemous words in verse 28.
		QUESTIONS:- 1) What is so different about this one particular sin? The scribes did not mention the word 'Ruach ha'Qodesh' (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) at all. 2) What does the 'The One Unforgivable Sin' has to do with the scribes to serve as a warning to everyone? The scribes blasphemed against the Messiah, not against the Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah).

TOPIC : A Divided Kingdom & The Unforgivable Sin / The Unpardonable Sin

Mark 3:20-30 King James Version with restored names (KJV with Restored Names)

ANSWER:-
The difference is this. SCENARIO #1: Some people may have blasphemed the Messiah without seeing and knowing the power of the Most High Creator through the miracles that Yahusha had performed.

SCENARIO #2: Whereas, the scribes here today we read had ALREADY seen the power of the Most High Creator Yahuah when Yahusha casted out the demons. Sadly, they STILL choose to reject the admit publicly that Yahusha casted the demons out throught the power of the Almighty Most High Creator Yahuah!

They saw, they understood, they knew!.... Yet they chose to blaspheme the Ruach ha'Qodesh (the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah) / the Most High Creator Yahuah.

Can you see the difference between SCENARIO #1 and SCENARIO #2?

The scribes' main goal was to have the Messiah Yahusha killed. The scribes did not even care if they have sinned against the Most High this way. They totally have no respect for the Most High Almighty Creator. WARNING DETECTED: Do not commit this same sin that the scribes had committed in this passage because the Most High Almighty Creator Yahuah will never forgive this one particular sin!

3) A = APPLICATION – Explain how this scripture can be applied in our lives.
